REV. T. H. McNEIL PASSED AWAY AT HIS HOME IN RIDGEWAY—LARGE FUNERAL, TOUCHING TRIBUTES.

The Rev. Thomas H. McNeal of Ridgeway, after an illness lasting through a short duration, passed away at his home in Ridgeway, S. C., last Saturday, November 21.

The Rev. McNeal was a highly respected minister of the Old Gethsemane Baptist Association, being its treasurer at the time of his death, which position he had held for sixteen years.

At the time of his death he pastored the famous old Crane Creek Baptist Church, four miles north of Columbia, and another prominent charge in Fairfield county.

Brother McNeal had been a zealous minister of the Gospel for forty years and pastored some of the leading churches during those years.

He was highly respected by both white and colored, and through his thrift had laid by a "little for the rainy day." His funeral services were held from the Mt. Pizgah Baptist Church, Ridgeway, of which he was a member.

There were thousands in attendance from far and near. Many ministers his life companions, were there to pay tribute to his memory. The Rev. J. A. McConnell, D. D., pastor of the church, preached the funeral. He was brief but one of the best funeral orations listened to.

The Rev. J. C. White, Moderator of the Gethsemane Baptist Association, presided during these services and read the letters and telegrams of condolence from friends of distant cities.

The Mt. Pizgah choir sang beautifully but sadly "Nearer My God to Thee." Brief eulogiums of Brother McNeal were pronounced by the Rev. A. Chandler, chairman of the executive board of the Gethsemane Association; Rev. T. J. Roseboro, Rev. D. F. Thompson, D. D., clerk of the Gethsemane Association; Dr. H. M. Moore, president of the State S. S. and B. Y. P. U. Convention; Dr. E. W. Bowers, corresponding secretary Foreign Mission Board National Baptist Convention. Many ministers were present who did not have the time to pay their respects to their fallen brother. At the conclusion of the services the Rev. J. C. White called for a collection for the family, which amounted to $26.04.

The Rev. McNeal's body was laid to rest with Masonic honors, a large body of the craft having turned out.

He leaves one son, three daughters, a wife and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. The grave was buried in a mound of the most select flowers.

"Servant of God, well done, Rest be thy new employ; The battle fought, the victory won, Enter thy Master's joy."
